

Summer 2015 Art Showcase

WALL BOUND

The 2015 Promega Summer Art Showcase is a historical perspective on Arizona Chicano Muralism. The exhibit will feature muralists representing CALACA Cultural Center (Tempe, AZ), whose purpose is to advance cultural arts through community arts initiatives. The showcase will promote social-cultural awareness and historical enrichment using the power of muralism.

On Tuesday, June 9, the artists will participate in an open-panel discussion at a symposium at 3:30 pm to be followed by the Exhibit Opening Reception from 4:30–6:30 pm.

Featured Artists: Cristina Cardenas, Zarco Guerrero, Martin Moreno, Joseph "Sentrock" Perez, Alfred Quiroz, Valerie Aranda, Jim Covarrubias, Angel Diaz, Quatzal Guerrero and Such Styles.

For more information on the artists visit: www.promega-artshow.com

Symposium and Opening Reception

Tuesday, June 9, 2015

Symposium at 3:30-4:30 pm

Reception at 4:30-6:30 pm

BioPharmaceutical Technology Center

5445 East Cheryl Parkway, Fitchburg, WI 53711

Exhibit open to the public:

June 9–September 11, 2015

M–F 8:00 am – 4:00 pm

Groups larger than ten by appointment only: 608-277-2669

This exhibit is made possible through support from Promega Corporation. For future art show announcements, submit your name and e-mail address to: artshow@promega.com
Show curated by Marco Albarran: marco.albarran@calaca.org; show produced by Daniel Swadener: swadener@gmail.com

Promega

2800 Woods Hollow Road
Madison, WI 53711